Archbold Banker Elected to Lead State Trade Association

Paul S. Siebenmorgen, president and CEO of The Farmers & Merchants State Bank in Archbold has been elected to serve as chairman of the Ohio Bankers League's board of directors in 2014.

Comprised of bank executives from across the state, the OBL board serves as the governing body for the professional trade association representing all Ohio banks and savings institutions. As chairman, Siebenmorgen will play a critical role in setting the League's agenda as well as establishing legislative and regulatory priorities for the Ohio banking industry.

"Paul has been instrumental in positioning Ohio's premier banking association to effectively address the critical issues facing our industry in 2014," commented OBL President and CEO Mike Adelman. "He is a thoughtful banker who brings credibility to our statewide efforts as we fight for common sense regulation."

Siebenmorgen began his banking career as an assistant cashier with Lake City Bank, Indiana in 1980 and was appointed president and CEO of Farmers & Merchants State Bank in 2005.

He is a member of the American Bankers Association's Community Bankers Council and the Northwest State Community College board of trustees.

The OBL is the legacy trade association formed by the merger of the Ohio Bankers Association and the Ohio League of Financial Institutions; both formed in the late 1800s. The association provides professional education, governmental advocacy services and cooperative buying to more than 200 banks and thrifts across the state.
